OBAMA FREAKS: SEEKS TO STOP SIBLEY AND SUPPRESS SIBLEY'S SUBPOENAS

WASHINGTON D.C. - A clearly panicked and desperate Barack Hussein Obama, II has dispatched his lawyers to intervene in Montgomery Blair Sibley's Electoral College lawsuit to stop Sibley's subpoenas from revealing information which could prove devastating to Mr. Obama. Ironically wearing the veil of the United States, Mr. Obama's lawyers filed on his behalf their Motion of the United States for a Stay of Discovery Or, Alternatively, to Quash Subpoenas and Defendants' Motion to Dismiss, to Stay All Discovery, and for Sanctions.

In Response, Sibley has filed his: Response to Motion of The United States to Stay Discovery Or Quash Subpoenas and Plaintiff's Response to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss and Reply to Defendants' Omnibus Response.

Sibley said: "Let me strip away the legal gobbledygook and speak plainly: Obama doth protest too much, methinks. There comes a point when Judge Bates should not be ignorant as a judge of what he knows as a man.¹ Unless everyone wants to behave like ostriches, we cannot ignore the mounting evidence of Mr. Obama's ineligibility to be President. Simply stated, what is Mr. Obama hiding and why he is so fearful that his 20th Century records will be released? James Madison said: 'A popular Government, without popular information or the means of acquiring it, is but a Prologue to a Farce or a Tragedy, or perhaps both.' I fear we are at Madison's long-ago predicted Prologue."
