OBAMA’S ELIGIBILITY CHALLENGED IN NEW LAW SUIT AND
SIBLEY SEEKS APPOINTMENT OF HAWAIIAN EXAMINER TO SUBPOENA OBAMA’S ORIGINAL BIRTH RECORDS

WASHINGTON D.C. - Though resident of the District of Columbia are denied the right to voting Representation in Congress and to control their local affairs – rights all other United States citizens enjoy – the residents of the District of Columbia have been exclusively granted by Congress a right no non-District of Columbia resident possesses: The right to a post-election challenge to the qualifications for office of any elected official. That statutorily-granted legal “standing” to challenge qualifications is found at D.C. Code §11-1001.11\(b\)\(1\).

Accordingly, Montgomery Blair Sibley has this day filed a Petition for Review in the District of Columbia Court of Appeals seeking to challenge the qualifications of Barack Hussein Obama, II to occupy the Office of President of the United States. Additionally, Mr. Sibley has filed an Omnibus Motion in that matter seeking subpoenas for Mr. Obama’s: (i) original birth certificates, (ii) Selective Service and Social Security records, (iii) college applications and transcripts from Occidental College, Columbia University and Harvard Law School and (iv) his passport records – all documents Obama has refused to reveal. Mr. Sibley said: “What has he got to hide? I must say in my experience where there is smoke, there is usually fire. I think the public has a right to know the truth.”

Additionally, in a separate suit pending in D.C. Superior Court, Mr. Sibley has applied to the Court for the Appointment of an Examiner to take out-of-state deposition and subpoena for documents all related to Mr. Obama’s birth in Hawaii. Said Mr. Sibley: “The powers that be may well block my attempts to get at the truth, but it will not be for my lack of trying to get at that truth.”
